

Song of Ascent

Revolution Cry feat. Roslyn Peralta, Johnny Redding, Joseph Muñiz & Tanya Lindberg

Recorded Key - C

Intro/Chords:

Dm F C G

Chorus: (repeat)

My God watches over me
My God watches over me
My God watches over me
All glory, all glory to my Lord

Verse 1:

Lift my eyes upon the mountains, where does my help come from?
You're the Maker of the heavens, my help comes from the Lord

Chorus: (repeat)

Verse 2:

You won't ever let me stumble, no harm shall come to pass
You're the God who never slumbers, You guide me where to go

Spoken Word:

I know you steady watching me
So I stop and see
Hold time in your hands that's far from what a watch could see
Past my intricacies, past all my wrongs
Though I tried to run away from You,
Your presence is where I belong
And I know I'm needing You
Know I'm never leaving You
One day in your presence better than the world deceiving You
A million days up out of it I know where I belong
You always got my back
You're keeping me under your arms
It is written by the Word of the Divine
Who also walks and lives in us
His children that the assembling of the saints
Are waking to the sound of revelation!
Oh yes this King who reigns is risen among the people He has chosen to declare the message of forgiveness!
Oh Love has made the way for the fallen to break free from tyranny into freedom!
Freedom to love, bring peace, and unity!

Verse 3:

You won't ever let me stumble, no harm shall come to pass
You're the God who never slumbers, You guide me where to go

Bridge:

Now and forever, now and forever, now and forever
Reign down Your love on us
Now and forever, now and forever, now and forever
Reign down Your love on us

Chorus: (repeat)

My God watches over me
My God watches over me
My God watches over me
All glory, all glory to my Lord

Spoken Word:

You left the 99 all because I strayed away
The prodigal of sons when I left the kingdoms face

I know you're watching over me because you took my place
I can't wait to see the day
When we bow before your grace

As a baby walks You are there so we don't stumble
You're the God who don't deceive and protect us when we slumber

You guide us where we go you're the bright that lights my path
Clearly deserved death, but you died on our behalf
